A big thank you to Caitlin LaPorte!

A former CCAA intern, Caitlin LaPorte joined CCAA on March 16th as our Communications Writer. She rose to the unique challenge of working remotely on her first day and her work has been invaluable.

Caitlin crafted many current and future communication messages as well as completed 20 grant applications and 6 grant reports. During her three months' tenure, we were awarded 3 new grants!

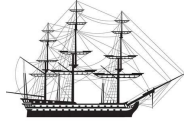

Caitlin was a terrific addition to our small team and she will be missed! Although she has been lured back to her former employer, Variety the Children's Charity, she hopes to do some freelance projects with us in the future and to visit often.

Plus a big thank you to our supporters for these new grants!
